

WE ARE
Ngāi Tahu

Te Rūnanga o NGĀI TAHU

“Inspire. Invent. Intertwine. Working together we can do great things. Whakamanawatia. Ma te mahi ngatahi, ka whakatutuki”

A man wearing a grey beanie, a dark t-shirt, and a blue backpack is carrying a young child on his back. The child is wearing blue patterned socks. The man is holding a large green plastic bin filled with cooked crayfish. He is standing outdoors in a parking lot with other people and vehicles in the background. A woman in a yellow high-visibility vest is talking to him. A silver SUV is parked behind them. The scene is bright and sunny.

The Ngāi Tahu response to the Kaikōura Earthquake

Support for the locals NOT a Takeover

On the ground Intel

Great Communications

Logistics planning and coordination – essential!

Practical and identified Support

Relationships

Evacuation

Cultural Awareness

A photograph of a baby sitting on a bed. The baby is wearing a striped long-sleeved shirt and a necklace. They are smiling and looking towards the camera. In front of the baby is a green woven basket. The bed has white pillows and two black and white patterned pillows. The headboard is a simple metal frame. On the wall above the headboard are three framed pictures. A black rectangular box with white text is overlaid on the image.

Follow up and Social Recovery Phase

