

Abstract details Keeping up with the times: a new process for ITA

Changing from a paper-based to an online assessment process presents some significant technical and operational challenges which affect the way the process is administered. Issues relating to data security, privacy, controlled accessibility, data accuracy and completeness, all need to be considered and addressed. The session will in part describe these challenges and the processes put in place to address them.