

Review of risk factors and management of laryngospasm

Nicholas Marks

1. Christchurch Hospital, Christchurch, New Zealand

A review of the recent literature and a presentation of the latest advice for identifying the risk factors for laryngospasm. This will be followed by a discussion of the appropriate management of this in the paediatric population.