

Resiliency for Practice Managers

Stress and pressure are often seen as business as usual in today's busy work environments. This session focuses on equipping Practice Managers with practical tools for building resilience for themselves and their teams so they have the capacity to rebound from challenges strengthened and more resourceful.