

Finance 201 – Financial Tips and Considerations for Experienced Practice Managers

Andrew Hawkes, Glenn Richards and Russell Goodbrand

KPMG

This session will provide attendees with an understanding of more complex financial management concepts including the management of cash-flow, budgeting, and reviewing practice financial performance.

An overview will also be provided of different general practice ownership structures along with considerations when transitioning between structures.