

ACC and General Practice Connect

ACC wants to work differently with General Practice teams. In collaboration with the primary care sector, we're developing a high level concept of how this future way of working could look. Come to this informative session to find out more about the future direction of our relationship and have your say.