

Working together to provide a better life

Primary health care, especially the services you manage play an important role in supporting our clients / your patients have an effective service.

Here is an opportunity to hear some of the changes that Work and Income is making to improve the clients' experience. The presentation will also provide some practical tips around how your service can assist your patient's interaction go more smoothly.

This will be an interactive presentation where we are looking to hear from you around suggestions you may have to improve our service and support you.