

Enrolments and the NES - why it is important to your practice to get it right

The presentation will provide an overview of the National Enrolment Service (NES), describe the relationship between the NES and the NHI, and outline the importance of correctly maintaining the national record for both individual practices and the wider health sector.