

Ali McDougall

Ali has worked in New Zealand's health sector for 15 years in a range of service management and patient journey improvement roles within DHBs and PHOs. Ali joined ACC in July 2018 and is the Design Lead for Provider Service Delivery's Primary Care programme.

Currently leading the ACC and General Practice Connect project, which is aimed at building a more flexible way of working for ACC and General Practice teams, she is passionate about supporting the wealth of expertise and clinical capability in General Practice teams.